As the economy recovers gradually from the global financial crisis, a number of PRC corporations are re-considering their plans to launch an IPO in Hong Kong.

This workshop aims to provide participants an overview of the IPO process for PRC companies in Hong Kong. Our speakers will identify the key factors to ensure a successful listing.

Course Outline:

- IPO process in Hong Kong for PRC companies (pre-listing preparations, IPO and post-listing activities)
- Key success factors
- Role of Accountants and Financial Advisers for PRC companies listed in Hong Kong
- Problem-tackling for PRC companies listed in Hong Kong
- Corporate governance issues and corporate disclosure obligations of PRC companies

About the speakers:

Mr Roy Lo CPA (Aust.) is a deputy managing partner of SHINEWING (HK) CPA Limited. He has extensive experience in auditing, merger and acquisitions, and corporate finance consultancy for listed companies in various industries. He currently manages a wide range of auditing and IPO projects for several listed clients. Mr Lo also provides advisory services relating to assurance and risk advisory matters for H-shares companies which are listed in the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (both Main and GEM Board).

Mr Andy Wong is a senior manager of SHINEWING (HK). He has over 15 years of experience in providing a wide range assurance and advisory services to a number of sizeable listed companies and state-owned enterprises of various industries. Prior to joining SHINEWING, Mr Wong was involved in various initial public offerings (IPO) projects in Hong Kong and China.
